

Privacy Policy

Any personal information collected from you from this site will only be used in the management and running of this site. Claries Accessories will not sell, rent or otherwise disclose information relating to you as an individual to any other company or use this information for any other marketing activity or commercial use.

All personal information will be deleted after the 30th April 2010, the date this site closes.

We will not use the personal information you submit to us for any other purpose than this promotion.

Children aged 12 – 16 years are allowed to enter the Alice In Wonderland competition. However, in this instance, notification will be sent to the parent or guardians e-mail address

When a child under the age of 16 registers their name and address or e-mail address we will ask for that person's parents' or guardians' e-mail address.

We cannot and will not establish conditions that encourage children to disclose personal information over and above what is reasonably necessary to participate in the activity on the web site.

If you wish you may e-mail this site to a friends e-mail address. Any e-mail address collected during this type of activity is stored temporarily in a transaction log file for security purposes and is deleted after a specified holding period.
